 SCORE: _____ of out 55

NORTH VALLEY DISTRICT 2013 FIRST AID MEET

Choking Scenario

Scenario: While the patrol is eating lunch on the trail, one Scout (must be a Boy Scout) begins choking on a piece of meat from his meal.

Without actually performing the Heimlich Maneuver, have one Scout demonstrate how it is done.

NOTE: Victim must be a Boy Scout

NOTE: Victim should be coughing until the Judge tells them to stop.

ACTION TAKEN	POSSIBLE POINTS	POINTS EARNED
VICTIM	5 Max pts
1. The victim properly demonstrates the international sign for choking, which is two hands clutching the throat. (Victim should be coughing.)	5
RESCUER	50 Max pts
1. Rescuer asks if he can help. (Rescuer does not need to identify himself because of knowing each other.)	5
2. Rescuer sends someone for help or has someone call.	5
3. The Rescuer encourages the victim to cough. (Judge: Tell the victim they can not cough.)	5
4. The Rescuer stands behind the victim and places one foot between the victim's legs to have proper balance in case the victim becomes unconscious.	5
5. The Rescuer makes a flat area on the hand to go against the victim (a fist with the thumb inside or outside is ok, as long as the Rescuer creates a flat surface).	5
6. The Rescuer places his hand (with the flat surface) in the area of the belly button with his other hand wrapped around the hand against the victim.	5
7. The Rescuer administers 5 abdominal thrusts (Rescuer must only simulate, not actually perform it.)	5
8. JUDGE: Ask how long you continue abdominal thrusts? RESCUER: Should state (a) until the object comes out and they start breathing (b) until they go unconscious (pass out) (c) until medical help arrives.	5 5 5
NOTE: American Red Cross teaches 5 abdominal thrusts and 5 back blows; American Heart Association teaches abdominal thrusts only.
TOTAL POINTS	55
